We received supportive comments from a range of sources, from the Mayor of Pacifica and individual Pacifica neighbors like Jennifer Kraljevich-Archibald, to college faculty like Brent Plater of the San Francisco State Environmental Studies Program, restoration experts like Greg Kamman, Principal Hydrologist, Kamman Hydrology & Engineering, Inc., and the California State Coastal Conservancy, among others.

We also received some negative comments, primarily from members of off-road recreation activist groups called CORVA and the Blue Ribbon Coalition, who questioned that OHV impact was related to our restoration project. We hope that the additional information provided herein regarding the impact of past OHV recreation will confirm our eligibility for OHV restoration funding.
